

Prayer Means Asking God for that Which He has Promised
Matthew 6:11

Jesus wants to _____ us of several things in this request.

First: God is the giver of all _____ things and has been since the _____.
Genesis 1:29; 2:16, 18

Second: Because of _____, mankind was _____ from the blessing of God.
Genesis 3:17, 24

Third: Even in _____, our Heavenly Father still _____ for His creation.
Genesis 3:18–19; Matthew 5:45

The verse helps the child of God understand the _____ for _____ for daily bread.

Asking “give us” is meant to convey to God our utter _____ on Him as a child looks to his father for daily _____.
Matthew 7:11; James 1:17

The use of the plural “us” and “our” is a call to _____ and _____ for the whole family of believers.
Ephesians 4:1-6

Jesus reminds us that all we have is “_____.”
Matthew 6:34; James 4:13–14

By teaching us to ask for our daily bread, Jesus turns our attention back to the _____ and our Father’s daily _____.
Exodus 16:14–15

Our daily bread does not _____ from _____ today but is still a gift of God.

Remember that this request is set in the _____.

The request for daily bread is about more than filling our bellies: it's about _____ and His _____.

John 6:51

While physical food is needed to _____, and the ultimate purpose for living is the _____ of God's kingdom.

Matthew 6:10

_____ - Preaching the gospel to the lost.

John 14:6

_____ – nourishment through the Word of God.

Matthew 4:4; Deuteronomy 8:3