Quotes

We showed from the former petition, that no man can be reckoned a Christian, who does not acknowledge himself to be a sinner; and in the same manner, we conclude from this petition, that we have no strength for living a holy life, except so far as we obtain it from God. Whoever implores the assistance of God to overcome temptations, acknowledges that, unless God deliver him, he will be constantly falling. -Calvin

“This teaches us that we are liable, at all times, to be led astray and to fall: it instructs us to confess our infirmity, and beseech God to hold us up, and not allow us to run into sin. We ask Him, who orders all things in heaven and earth, to restrain us from going into that which would injure our souls.”-Ryle

“God indeed tempts no one; but we pray in this petition that God would guard and keep us”-Luther

“So that we are to look upon our Mediator Christ, as doing as much work for us in Heaven at this instant, as ever He did on earth; here suffering, but there praying and presenting His sufferings.”-Goodwin
