

God is glorified as we rest in Christ
Psalm 23:3

General truths this Psalm teaches us

1. The Christian life revolves around the _____ and _____ work of God
2. Christianity is about _____ with the Lord, not merely the understanding of some facts

Specifics truths seen in verse 3

“He restores my soul”

When we stumble, _____, and fall it is the Lord who restores us

“He leads me in paths of righteousness”

After the Lord restores us, He continues to lead us in the _____ and right way

“For His name’s sake”

Scripture clearly reveals to us that the _____ of God is the _____ of all things

Quotes

“The Lord takes care of His people in a most plentiful way. He thereby renews them so that they feel that life in the presence of God is good and worth living. He restores, ie., gives the enjoyment of life, to His own.”-Tremper Longman III

“He is bound by His name to be present with His people...For the sake of His name, He keeps all the promises to His covenantal children. He is loyal to His people, for His honor and reputation are at stake.”-Tremper Longman III

*“The interest of the creature is, as it were, God’s own interest, in proportion to the degree of their relation and union to God”-
Jonathan Edwards*
