

Jesus is not Swayed by Public Opinion

John 3:1-3

Because God is the _____ of the _____, everything that is written is worthy of studying and meditating on.

_____ may have written down the Scriptures, but God's Spirit _____ the writing.

2 Timothy 3:16

The purpose of the Scriptures is to reveal to sinful humans the divine _____ and _____ of God.

1 Corinthians 10:11

The Word of God is much deeper than just a story or instruction book; the Holy Spirit uses the scriptures to _____ and _____ us.

Hebrews 4:12

So, as we read, study, and sit under the preaching of the Word, we should be hearing about _____, the Word of God _____.

John 1:14; 5:39

Nicodemus exemplifies the life without _____ in Christ.

Nicodemus (a Pharisee) was a _____: one who believes that God can be _____ by what a person does.

John 3:1; Luke 10:25

Nicodemus had attained a high position in religious society which actually kept him from _____ faith in Christ.

John 3:1-2

He was a ruler of the Jews (i.e. a teacher) but without the _____ which his heart yearned for: his spiritual eyes were still _____.

John 3:2; 11:10

Nicodemus came to _____ and acknowledged that there was something _____ about him.

Nicodemus came to Jesus and _____ of who He really was.

John 3:2; John 1:1–2

Nicodemus attempted to wrongly _____ himself by revealing his _____-based heart.

John 3:2

Jesus does not fall for the trap of praise of man but _____ the narrative back to the great need of Nicodemus.

Jesus is not _____ but _____ to this wayward soul.

John 3:3; Matthew 12:20

Jesus gets to the heart of the matter and addresses the _____ of Nicodemus.

John 3:3

As we proceed through this account, we will see Jesus unpack what it means to be _____.

Jesus will clearly declare that no sinner has the _____ to make himself or herself _____ with God.

John 3:6

Only by _____ in Jesus Christ can one _____ the kingdom of God.

John 3:14–15

Joining the church, taking communion, keeping the Ten Commandments, being a moral person, etc. are powerless to give _____.

John 3:18