

Overwhelmed by God's Sovereignty
John 3:5-8

Jesus is stressing the fact that the kingdom of God is only available to those who have been _____.

Like Nicodemus, our _____ are not enough for God to allow us into His kingdom.
John 3:5

In our _____, we are _____ to will ourselves to be right with God.
John 3:6; Isaiah 64:6

This is the doctrine of total _____/total _____.

Only a completely _____ by the Holy Spirit will make us right with God.
John 3:6; 6:63

Like Nicodemus, the doctrine of _____ is too marvelous for any without the Spirit to accept.

Though he felt _____, Nicodemus fell short of God's righteous requirements for _____ salvation.
John 3:7, 9

Regeneration (the new birth) is given by the Holy Spirit _____ according to the _____ of God.
John 3:8

Like the wind, no human can _____ it or even _____ it.

Jesus speaks of the wind to illustrate the _____ of God to do whatever, whenever, however, and with whomever He wishes.

John 6:43–44

Though I may not understand the wind or even like it, I am _____ to _____ it.

Romans 9:20–21

No one knows the exact _____ of the wind, nor does anyone know exactly how the Spirit is _____ in the lives of others for salvation.

John 3:8; Deuteronomy 29:29

While the Holy Spirit uses the Word of God to _____ and _____ sinners, why one and not another is regenerated must be left up to God.

John 3:8

Just as the wind causes the trees to bend and move, a man or woman will, without _____ be brought to _____ by the Holy Spirit's regenerating power.

John 3:8

This is the doctrine of the _____ of God.

John 11:43–44; Ezekiel 37:5, 14; Romans 8:28-30