Biblical joy is not dependent upon _____ but is the result of a lively _____ in God.

James 1:2-3; Hebrews 12:2

When the joy of the Holy Spirit _____ the heart and life of a believer, _____ things happen.

A _____ of joyous Christians is a _____ to others.

1 Thessalonians 1:7; 1 Timothy 4:12

The _____ of joyous Christians will _____ beyond the walls of the local church.

1 Thessalonians 1:7; 2 Thessalonians 1:3-4

The joy of the Holy Spirit is not an abstract subjective emotion but is a manifestation of the _____ of _____.

True Christian joy is based upon the _____ of the Word of God who _____ His people before they knew Him.

1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Thessalonians 2:13

True Christian joy _____ like a _____ which continues out from its point of origin.

1 Thessalonians 1:8

True Christian joy flows from a _____ in God.

1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Corinthians 1:20

True Christian joy is _____, spreading to others.

1 Thessalonians 1:8; Romans 1:8

When we have the joy of the Holy Spirit, people will _____ of it and _____ it in us because we trust in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 1:8; 1 Peter 3:13-16
