

Jesus Christ is the Fulfillment of Prophecy Micah 5:1-5a

Micah was a _____ during the reign of Hezekiah and is describing the _____ of the future Babylonian siege of Jerusalem.

The _____ of Israel will be humiliated by the conquering Babylonians who would “strike them on the cheek.”

Micah 5:1

Because of God’s _____ on Israel, there is a sense that all _____ is _____, but God is faithful.

Micah 4:9-10

The true _____ of _____ will arise when Israel least expected it.

Bethlehem, like David, was _____ and _____ but only in the sight of men.

Micah 5:2; 1 Samuel 16:4, 11, 13

Though small and insignificant, the _____ knew that Bethlehem would be the site of something extraordinary: the birth of the true Ruler and Shepherd of Israel.

Matthew 2:1-6

While it may look and feel as though God had _____ Israel, He was _____ His plan according to His will.

The first phase of the prophecy was to take place following the _____ of captivity in Babylon.

Micah 5:3; Micah 4:10

The second phase of this prophecy would take place after _____ of silence from God.
Amos 8:11

The silence of God was broken by the _____ giving _____ to the Messiah.
Isaiah 7:14; Galatians 4:4

The _____ will end when God _____ His people.
Micah 5:3; Micah 4:6-7; Hosea 3:5
Ephesians 2:13-14

The Shepherd-King of Israel _____ for His _____.

The _____ of God is all those who _____ in Jesus Christ the True Shepherd of Israel.
Micah 5:4; John 10:11, 14-16

His rule, unlike the first David, is in the _____ and _____ of God.
John 1:14; 2 Peter 1:16-17

The Shepherd-Ruler of Israel cares so completely for His flock that no _____ can come to them, causing them to dwell at _____.
Micah 5:4-5; Hebrews 13:20-21
